

District Meeting Minutes
February 4th, 2024

Lance opened the meeting at 5:04pm with the serenity prayer

Tradition 2: Destiny

Concept 2: Molly

Visitors: none

Approval of minutes: Molly moved to approve minutes, Kelly seconded.

Treasurer Report: Lance reading treasurer report for Judy- Ending balance: $6,380.61

Old business:

Grapevine and corrections chair is open

Heidi is willing to stand for the grapevine, giving sobriety date of 1984. Heidi states she is willing to stand for grapevine as long as it is not too much. 9 voting for her taking the chair none opposed. Heidi takes the chair as grapevine

Brandy's sobriety date is May 21st 2023. Brandy wants to take over the corrections chair, 6 for 3 against. Minority opinion is that individuals don't want brandy to take on too much. Molly changed her vote. Making the vote 7-2. Brandy voted in by majority vote.

Ellen is not going to be taking meetings into the prerelease.

EIN numbers, steve is out of town so he is not going to be able to be here tonight, TBD next month.

AA meetings at Ivy assisted living, if there are any volunteers that want to do the meetings.

NEW BUSINESS:

Upcoming regional aa conference in Minot, ND. A group of people in Missoula and whitefish are taking a train. Right now, Destiny wants to go, rise and shine is unable to help financially. The second GSR is Brandon from singleness of purpose, at his meeting they voted to pay $400 for him to go. Feb 29-4th. Destiny stated that she doesn't have enough PTO to go to the conference. Brandon H. states last year district sent him and a couple of them last year. District paid for room and travel and he was responsible for meals.

Discussion for district inventory, lance states other districts have done inventories. Kelly is wondering what group inventory entails. What is the topic/purpose? Our delegate Kasey is the one who gave Lance the idea.

Discussion is had about James' memorial and the anonymity of the 41 facebook page. Molly states that there is a disclaimer on the top of the facebook page that states that if you don't comment, like, or share the posts you will remain anonymous.
