New Business

Elections:

Diane noted there are still open positions. Judy nominated Molly for Treasurer. Molly noted her service history, and was voted in. Lance asked for anyone else to stand for positions. Dawn noted the importance of people really making sure to stand for positions.

Grapevine:

There is no grapevine inventory anymore. Diane asked how much we should spend on books. Dawn noted we should think about how much District should spend and come forward next month. The plain language book is also now available, but there may be a wait time to receive them because there have been a reported 44,000 requests for the book already.
