From Your Editor

A new wrapping for the Triangle--USPS regulations effective in October make it more effective (i.e. cost less) to use an envelope. I hope you like it!

Here we go! This issue contains the agenda for the Area Assembly April 10-11. Your DCM has the background material. We have some work to do! A good thing for me! (To have work to do.) If I do it there is less chance I'll be meddling in your business!

Something We Used to Do?

The Grapevine has been our meeting in print since 1944. Are you a Grapevine reader?

The Grapevine is financially struggling to survive but has been receiving a record number of stories for submission. Stories are the only contribution the Grapevine receives and financially survives only on your subscriptions. Our West Central Regional Trustee, Ken B. serves on the Grapevine Board and will rotate next year into the Chairman of the Grapevine Board.

The Grapevine Board has implemented a plan to

The March 2010 Grapevine has arrived! Special section: Financial insecurity
The Promises come true for AAs, even in tough times revitalize the Grapevine and hopefully, keep it from becoming something we used to do.

Two questions have been posed to you by Ken: 1. Of what value is it to AA? and 2. At what cost, if there is a break point, do we maintain the publication?

I am hopeful that we have some good discussion around these questions. If you have any thoughts on this, you can either share them directly with Ken by emailing him at wcrtrustee@aa-montana.org or delegate@aa-montana.org.

We Are a Key Part

The spring service events are coming, in our Area and in our Region, after which our delegate heads off to the General Service Conference. We are a key part of this process, making our decisions here in Montana and giving Carole a "sense of the Area" on the matters she will address in New York.

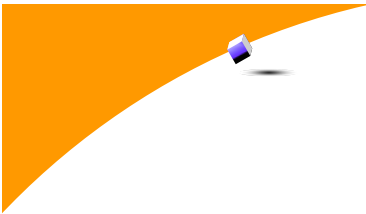

I hear people in my Home Group and elsewhere in the Fellowship who find that process an unpleasant bother — just more trouble than it is worth. I used to feel that way about lots of things in my life, like work, marriage and kids — pretty much everything.

Back then, that peculiar mental twist that centered in my mind made me think drinking was the only answer. It gave me that "kick," "buzz," "jolt." Alcohol was the real deal. It was better than controlled substances that I couldn't legally buy without a prescription. It was cheaper, with better quality control, than drugs that were flat illegal.

There were other things that lit up my life besides alcohol. Loving a woman, achieving something at school or sports or work, selling my writing, winning a jury trial, holding my first born, my daughter, in my arms in the delivery room — all of them did give me a sense of being okay, of coming home, of being a part of. So did participating in any gathering or group (family, friends, coworkers), when we were firing on all cylinders. There were a lot of things

And, how about the Grapevine? Talk to your fellows and please let Ken know how we feel about AA's meeting in print!

Thanks to the groups and individuals who have subscribed or renewed their subscriptions!

The next issue of the Triangle will be a post assembly issue, with news from the Assembly. Articles are always welcome, I would like to have them by April 15, please!

I'm looking forward to seeing you in Lewistown!

Thanks for trusting me to be your newsletter editor!

in life other than alcohol that could give me that sense of ease and comfort.

The trouble was that I couldn't get those other "kicks" by just opening a bottle. The other avenues to ease and comfort required work, care, nurture. I had to bring something to the table — commitment, honesty, unselfishness — instead of just grabbing something for myself. And even if I did the work, the results weren't guaranteed. There were risks involved.

Alcohol made me feel good without earning it, deserving it, working for it, sharing it or being responsible about it. It was all about me, selfish me, poor little old me, who never got enough love, money, respect, attention, deference, whatever. Nobody knew the trouble I'd seen and I just knew that nobody cared, including God, so I drank.

In recovery, I am discovering that part of what makes life happy, joyous and free is carrying my share of the load — at work and at play, in sorrow and in joy. It's self-support, outside of the money realm. It happens in participating in my Home Group, in working with others and in seeking to improve conscious contact. Our slang is full of ways to say it. No pain, no gain; no free lunch; no effort and no risk, no return. Service work is yet another realm of action that lights up my life, and one of the reasons it does is because to be of service I have to put in the time and the effort.

There is real satisfaction in participating in an informed group conscience, at any level of service, whether it goes the way I think it should or not. Hearing a minority opinion after I voted in the majority, and really listening and considering what the minority is saying, is a growth experience. The outcomes are important, for sure, but so is the process and so are the people who participate in it.

Here's my discovery: I don't have to participate in service, I get to participate in service, and share that sense of being okay, of coming home, of being a part of. I hope we all take that opportunity to engage in the spring A.A. service process. In my experience, the words Bill wrote about working with others apply equally to service work: "[T]his is an experience you must not miss. We know you will not want to miss it." Alcoholics Anonymous, Chap. 7, p. 89.

Speak Up

Your voice is needed! I recently attended the January meeting of the General Service Board weekend. Many times during the weekend I heard, "What does the Fellowship think?" or "How does that affect the Fellowship?"

My Home Group studies a Tradition with the corresponding month, and the Second Tradition also emphasizes how important the voice of each member is to the overall well being of the Fellowship. The First Tradition calls on us to come together for the common good – our individual recovery depends on unity. Throughout AA's history, when we work together, God reveals himself through our group conscience. It even kept Bill from becoming a therapist at Towns Hospital.

This issue contains the agenda for the 2010 Spring Assembly in which the agenda for the 60th General Service Conference is contained. Discuss these items with your group, go to a pre-assembly and speak up, go to the Area Assembly and speak up. If your idea is different from your fellow's, speak up! People who are louder or have titles are no more important than YOU.

A cautionary note to me and my fellow title holders (GSR, DCM, Committee Chair) – listen to the group conscience, listen to every comment being made, and please don't make a decision on how to cast your vote until you have done so.

COMMITTEE AGENDA ITEMS

Pages 3-7 contain our agenda items and the Area Committees addressing them. Most items come from the General Service Conference. There are nine Area 40 agenda items—one in Archives, three in Area 40 Structure and Policies, two in International Conventions/Regional Forums, one in Public Information, and two “review and report” items (for our delegate’s information for the GSC), one each in Grapevine and in Agenda.

Each Area Committee Chair was sent the committee’s agenda items with available background information in February, to share with other members of the committee for research, review and discussion, for a well-informed committee conscience/decision.

If your Group has any comments, questions, and concerns or would like copies of any background information please contact the appropriate Area Committee Chair.

Your DCM has the names, phone numbers and addresses of the Area Committee (which also appear in each issue of the Triangle ), and you also can email them through the Area’s website www.aamontana.org should you need them. (NOTE: The process by which items come to the Assembly is detailed in the Area 40 Committee System Policies & Procedures manual which is available through your DCM and on the Area website).

The General Service Conference items on our agenda will not come to the floor of the Assembly as recommendations (as motions made and seconded). Instead each committee will report an informed sense of the committee to the Assembly, and we will seek an informed sense of the Area on the Assembly floor by discussion and a show of hands, to provide our Delegate with a sense of Area 40’s informed group conscience, to assist her in preparing for and participating in the General Service Conference. A number of GSC committees have an item in their background materials for election of the conference committee chairperson and/or an “other items” designation, with no background, which appears to be an empty item to allow for any last minute additions. These items are not included in our Area Agenda because our delegate does not need a sense of the Area on them. Review of Concepts I, II, III, X, XII and Tradition 2 can help us understand our process.

The following Committees/Committee agenda items are listed in order of presentation.

Archives/Area 40 Structure and Policies – Tim H.

Concepts I, II, III, X, XII and Tradition 2

Concept I: Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship.

Concept II: The General Service Conference of A.A. has become, for nearly every practical purpose, the active voice and the effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs.

Concept III: To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A. —the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives—with a traditional “Right of Decision.” are the principal planners and administrators of overall policy and finance. They have custodial oversight of the separately incorporated and constantly active services, exercising this through their ability to elect all the directors of these entities.

Concept X: Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.

Concept XII: The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and, whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government, and that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

Tradition Two: For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
